

Coach of the Year

	4	3	2	1
Team Performance	Winning Record Tremendous improvement from previous year/years	Winning record Improved	Losing record Improved	Losing Record Little Improvement
Advocate for women's lacrosse and his/her program	Involved in US lacrosse, runs camps, of-season programs, etc	Runs off-season camps and programs for his/her school	Runs off-season practices For his/her school	Does little in off-season with regard to lacrosse
Learner/Teacher	Attends various conferences and is gifted at getting the players to implement new techniques	Attends various conferences and has limited ability to implement	Attends a conference and Has a limited ability to Implement	No conferences
Disciplined	Advocates for team safety and rules, but is able to keep a level head during games	Advocates for team safety and rules but has difficulty keeping a level head during games	Does not advocate for Team safety and rules, But keeps a level head	Does not advocate for team safety and rules and has difficulty keeping a level head
Experienced and accountable	15+	10+	+5	+1
	Takes responsibility for team failure and gives credit when credit is due	Takes some responsibility for team failure and gives some credit	Takes little responsibility For team failure and give Little credit	No responsibility Gives little credit
Encourages diversity and good sportsmanship	Apparent that the coach encourages diversity and good sportsmanship and the team acts likewise	Seems the coach encourages diversity and good sportsmanship, but the team has difficulty acting responsibly	Does not seem the coach Encourages diversity and Good sportsmanship and Team acts likewise	Coach seems to encourage poor sportsmanship and team acts likewise
Thinks "Team First"	Puts the "team and ethics ahead of individuals, individual records, and records	For the most part puts "team" and ethics ahead of the rest	Will sometimes sacrifice The record for the "team" and ethics	Record comes first